Sterling Silver from Lahore, Pakistan

Pakistan may be in the news as of late because of bombings in Lahore, but Amna Shariff and her team of talented designers soldier on, designing and producing cutting-edge and sophisticated sterling silver necklaces, bracelets and earrings.

Living and working in Lahore, Amna traded in her communications background and job as a journalist to work exclusively in sterling silver and semi-precious gemstones. She begins with the design and then carefully handcrafted each and every piece.

We invite you to browse our U.S. collection of Amna's jewelry and enjoy our journey as we learn more about Pakistan, its people, culture and handmade talents.
